

Association of Military Christian Fellowships
(Including Police and other protective agencies)

South West Pacific Regional Conference

Thriving in Christ in a Challenging World

Interaction Training (by invitation) 23-26 Oct 2018

Conference (open to all) 26-28 October 2018

Where: Queensland Conference and Camping Centre, Brookfield, Brisbane, Australia.

The conference centre is located 25 minutes from the Brisbane CBD in a beautiful park and forest setting which includes a swimming pool. (See www.qccc.org.au/discover-brookfield/ for more information and photographs of the conference location).

Accommodation: Most accommodation will be in single or twin bedrooms, with a few people sharing each bathroom. In some cases up to five delegates of the same sex will share a dormitory. There are also facilities for handicapped persons. Brookfield is fully catered. All meals plus morning tea, afternoon tea and supper will be provided.

Keynote speaker: Ian Lambert Anglican Bishop to the Australian Defence Force will speak on the conference theme.

Costs (per person): Conference accommodation, meals and rego fee: $315
Interaction Training accommodation, meals and rego fee (invitation event): $395
Interaction and Conference accommodation, meals and rego fee: $590
Registration fee only: $120

While the most benefit of the conference will be obtained by living in, day visitors are welcome. The cost of day visits will be provided on application. Please note that only food provided by the conference centre may be consumed there.

Bookings and Payment: www.trybooking.com/329618

Further Information: mcf.office@defence.gov.au or +61 2 6266 4950

